

CRYSTAL'S QUEST: AN ADVENTURE INTO THE WORLD OF GEMSTONES INVITES YOUNG READERS INTO THE WORLD OF GEOLOGY THROUGH CRYSTAL'S ENTERTAINING ADVENTURES.

This children's book was written for young readers ages 8-10, the young at heart, and anyone who loves rocks and gemstones. Crystal's Quest is a story about friendship, emotions and the amazing properties of gemstones.

Each story revolves around Crystal and her beagle buddy, Noodle, and all the characters they meet.

Crystal's Quest: An adventure into the world of gemstones is sweet, educational, and full of fun facts, but it also covers social issues about fitting in and accepting yourself for your uniqueness. Great for girls and boys!

Each character that Crystal and Noodle meet are struggling with a life challenge. One character needs to learn about generosity, one bravely uses their voice to do what they love, another realizes that self-acceptance is okay and yet another discovers that other people sometimes get the blues.

Crystal LOVES rocks and gems. Noodle HATES peas. Crystal shares her knowledge and insights about rocks to encourage and inspire new friends like Quackers the Duck, Bandit the Goat and many more! Each character receives a rock specially chosen by Crystal.

Every chapter contains a quest story and Crystal's journal page. Each chapter ends with the geology, geography and history of the rock in that chapter. There is even a cut-out bookmark!

This book offers children a practical way to discover how stones can be used to assist them when they are facing challenges.
